DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-65, 67-236 are currently pending in the application.

Claim Objections

2. Claim 67 is objected to because of the following informalities: claim 67 is depending on canceled claim 66. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

3. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

4. Claims 1-19, 233, 20-38, 234, 39-57, 77-114, 235, 115-152, 236, 153-190, 191-228 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

Regarding claims 39-57, 153-190, according to page 53 of Interim Guidelines for Examination of Patent Applications for Patent Subject Matter Eligibility "A computer program product encoded in computer readable media" is non-statutory subject matter.

"Computer Programs Representing Computer Listing Per Se, i.e., the descriptions or expression of the programs, are not physical "things." They are neither computer components nor statutory processes, as they are not "acts" being performed. Such claimed computer programs do not define any structural and functional interrelationships between the computer program and other claimed elements of a computer which permit the computer program's functionality to be realized. In contrast, a claimed computer-readable medium encoded with a computer program is a computer element which defines structural and functional interrelationships between the computer program and the rest of the computer which permit the computer program's functionality to be realized, and is thus statutory. See Lowry, 32 F.3d at 1583-84, 32 USPQ2d at 1035.

Regarding claims 1-19, 233, 20-38, 234, 39-57, 77-114, 235, 115-152, 236, 153-190, 191-228 are rejected under 35 U.S.C 101 because there is no physical transformation and claims do not produce useful and tangible result.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 58-65, 67-76 are allowed over prior art.
